

Greetings from the beautiful island of Taiwan.

Margaret Lin writes, 'I am a WEC transferred worker from Spain. I arrived in Taiwan on December 8, 2015. Everyone has given me a very nice welcome and for that I am grateful. By God's grace, I will take over some of the office administrative tasks like this newsletter and the finances, as well as get involved in other things the Lord has planned. Even though I was born in Taiwan, I am starting over and learning Mandarin since I grew up in the US, and have been in Spain for the past 10 ½ years. This has been and continues to be an adjustment, but God is gracious and merciful. I'm very grateful for WEC's new leaders Inyoung and Myungae Ok for introducing me to many people, Violet McMaster for her patience and teaching me the tasks I will take over, and for Won Kyung Lee, the Korean short-termer here who has shown me so many practical, helpful things in getting by in Taipei.'

We praise God for the monthly prayer meetings that the Oks began in November. We hope that these prayer meetings will cause people to catch the vision for missions and bring in more people interested in joining WEC. During the November 30th meeting, 12 people attended. During the December 27th meeting, God brought in 17 people. Among them were A & J back for short home leave. They inspired us with their testimony and what God is doing in the world. Please pray that the Lord will continue to move in people's hearts to come and pray for missions. We hold these prayer times every last Monday of the month. Please pray for the next meetings: January 25 & February 29, 2016

God has been good in providing Inyoung Ok many opportunities in making connections with Taiwan churches and leaders to promote missions. In January, he will preach in three different churches on three different Sundays. He was also interviewed by Good TV, a Christian television network in Taiwan. May God continue to use these connections to mobilize many Taiwanese into missions.

Please continue to pray for our Taiwan missionaries out in the field:

A & J: Returned to Taiwan on 12/23/2015 but needed to go to the US on 12/29. Pray for A's sister who was diagnosed with brain cancer. They will return on 1/7/2016. J will stay on until 2/2/2016 sharing at various churches and mission agency meetings, but A will return to the field on 1/14/2016. Pray also for the salvation of J's father.

S: Continual adjustment and language study.

M: Prayer for her mother who does not have good health.

A & K: They visit many churches in Australia mobilizing for missions, while K is very busy with WEC's IT work. They will visit Taiwan next year in May.

R & M: Doing Bible Translation. Pray for smooth progress as they are in the book of Jeremiah. Pray also for important meetings in January-February. Pray for wisdom for K, a fellow translator. Pray for R's ministry in making contacts and friendship evangelism.

Please also pray for our missionaries inside Taiwan: Insu and Sung Hee Park. They continue their ministry in San Wan among the Hakka. Pray for them as they pray and plan to build a church building in San Wan next year. Praise the Lord they have already bought the land. Pray also for the Nan Zuang outreach.

Last but not least, pray for our possible future WEC candidates: Milly, Eric & Vicky. Pray for God's guidance and the support of their home churches.

Thank you for your faithful and loving prayers and support. PLEASE let us know how we can pray for you. We have been meeting every day for morning devotionals and prayers and would love to lift you up to the Lord. May the Lord richly bless you in 2016.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!
