“Be still and know that I am God” Psalm 46:10

Taiwan:

Pray in this coming year that many will hear the Gospel and come to know and accept Jesus Christ as their Lord and Saviour. Praise the Lord for the many prayer groups which have started and are praying 24/7. Pray that during these prayer times people will be still and hear what God is saying.

C. Mandy Chu shares :

I am thankful that the result of my heart’s checkup turned out well. My father has been feeling much better. So we had a peaceful Chinese New Year.

1. Please ask good health and protection for my dad.
2. I will have an opportunity to share T. culture at the Pingtung University. I will also teach the students how to do crafts. Please ask for good preparation.
3. My church asked me to be involved in preparation of a children’s summer camp. We are still looking for a church (either from Korea or USA) to join us and work with us. Please ask for God’s leading and good preparation.

D Peter and Sarah Park share:

* Peter began working for a local church named “MingSui(明穗)church”. He is learning how to work in the church of Taiwan and how to build up the relationship with them. Every Saturday and Sunday he goes to the church and participates in the church ministry. Through the church ministries he’s also learning how to pray and lead worship in Chinese step by step. Please pray that Peter, by God’s strength, will adjust well.

* Sarah has been invited to make “Korean Kim-Chi” in the church. She got the ingredients and made “Kim-Chi” with the church sisters. Sarah taught the sisters how to make it and they all made it together and shared with all the church members. It was a wonderful time for Sarah to have fellowship with the church members. Please pray for Sarah as she builds relationships with the sisters in the church.

E. Margaret Lin shares:

1. Thank you for praying. Since the last newsletter, I feel like God had answered in many ways. I had a chance to give a small Christmas gift, Bible verse and gospel tract to my classmates and teacher. Also, I'm feeling more and more part of my local church family.
 2. Each term of my Mandarin classes is 11 weeks, so I just started a new term. Already feeling very busy.
 3. My church from US is coming in the summer for short term missions. I will help in the planning of this.
 4. March 31 and May 5: I've been asked to share about my missions experience in a local Taipei church and a missions festival, respectively. I'm nervous as I will try to use as much Mandarin as I can.
- Please pray that God will give me His words, wisdom and good preparation for all this amidst the busyness of school work.

F.. Taiwan missionaries:

Continue to remember our missionaries from Taiwan who are in various places involved in translation work, mobilising for missions, English language teaching, evangelism, women's and children's ministry. Pray for the Lord's grace, wisdom, strength, protection and peace to be given to each one. Pray for Pastor and Mrs. Wang's children. Their son attends university in Taiwan while their daughter is at university in Korea. Pray too for S. as she visits the homes of local people. She praises the Lord for good adjustment and good health.. Pray for good relationships with local co-workers. Remember M and R who will be moving to another country which will be a better location for their translation work. Pray for their short visit to Taiwan from end of February to end of March. R needs to be here to apply for a visa for the new location. Pray all will go well and the necessary visa granted. Pray for A as he has over 20 students in his English class. Pray for J as she is involved in women's ministry. Praise the Lord for the opportunities Kevin and Anna have to share about missions in churches and other special meetings. Pray for Kevin's IT work which is very important.

Thank you for praying for us.
