WEC TAIWAN NEWS NOVEMBER – DECEMBER 2019

“And His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.”
Isaiah 9:6

Let's pray that the true meaning of Christmas will be preached throughout the world this year. The world is a place of so many uncertainties and people seeking a better life. People are being uprooted and looking for peace. Pray they will come to know and accept the Prince of Peace who gave Himself for us. Pray for the various evangelistic activities held in many churches here on Taiwan and throughout the world.

A. Inyoung and Myungae share:

1. New worker:

Praise the Lord for Miss Huayeon Song who arrived 16th October. She will study Chinese for 2 years in Taipei and then join Insu and Sung Hee Park in the Sanwan Church Hakka church planting ministry. Pray she will settle well and enjoy language study and learning about Taiwan.

2 Medical Conference:

Inyoung attended the International Orthopaedic Conference on 22nd Oct, 2019 at the Hotel Royal Nikko, Taipei.

3. Potential New Worker:

Pray for JiaZhen(Jenny) Yu. She will take the IELTS language test on 7th November in preparation for joining the CO course in New Zealand next year. Pray she will reach the required level.

4. Board Meeting:

Pray for our board meeting on 2nd November as we pray for missionaries, plan the budget and work plan for 2020

5. Violet will attend her niece's wedding in Scotland. She leaves Taiwan on 19th November returning 28th December.

B. Insu and Sunghee Park share:

We returned to Taiwan on 2nd October and thank the Lord for the good time in Korea.

Praise to the Lord! 2sisters were baptized on 21st October. Please pray for their church life and spiritual growth.

On 3rd November we will have a Thanksgiving Service for the 18th anniversary of San Wan Church.

The 13th Coworkers' training in Korea:

We will visit Korea taking 34workers (Hakka and other people groups) for training on 4-11 Nov. and we will be back on 15 Nov. Please pray for health, safety, wisdom and the host church.

December events to pray for:

On 13th December we will have a Christmas Rally led by an American missionary and a team called Children's Lane. This will be held at the San Wan Elementary School and we expect 200 students to attend.

12/17 Silver people class, 12/18 Old folks' home, 12/21 with kids and youths at church, 12/24 Christmas Carols on the street and homes. Please pray that through these special services people will come to know the true meaning of Christmas and come to know and accept the Lord.

CGN TV in Korea:

From 16th to 20th December 7 people will visit us from Korea to make a video recording of Sanwan church and our ministries. It will be broadcasted in the program named 'Hometown Church' on CGN TV in Korea. Please pray for it to be a good opportunity for people to understand the Hakka and to participate in Hakka missions.

C. Margaret Lin shares:

1. Thank God for helping me pass an important test on 9/26, which allowed me to go to the next level's class. Please pray that I would shine Jesus' light; and for wisdom when talking about controversial topics in class.
2. New opportunities to serve have come up. Pray for wisdom in deciding what to do.
3. Please pray for my parents' health, and salvation for my parents and sister.

D. Mandy shares:

Thank God, I was able to take my dad's ashes to his hometown in Anhui Province, China in mid August. I am grateful that I was able to fulfil his will.

My two-month short term trip to my previous mission field went well. I had to have oxygen six times due to the altitude sickness. Yet I am grateful we were able to pray and encourage the local believers B&D. We also visited ex-workers and did follow-up for four local children.

Prayer points:

1. Clear guidance regarding my future ministry.
2. Local believers and children will trust God more.
3. Effective time management; eat well and exercise well.

E. Peter and Sarah:

Please continue to pray for Peter and Sarah during this study leave. Peter has been allocated to a church outside of Taipei and has to go there from Friday to Sunday. Pray for his studies, daily travel to the seminary and ministry at the weekend. Pray for their two daughters that they will settle well in school.

F. JeongHyun(John) Park and KyungHee(Joy) Noh

They write:

Praise the Lord, we found a church we could attend every Sunday. We attend the church prayer meetings. We are also thankful that the Lord has provided all our needs, such as furniture and other household things through friends and church members.

We are studying Chinese at a primary school near our home. We met a couple of godly people who have got a passion for His Mission.

Our prayer points:

- 1.- for our spiritual life to fix our eyes on our Lord and to walk with the Holy Spirit every moment.
2. - we will settle and adjust well into XinDian , the area we live in, and will have good communication and good bonding with our neighbors. Pray as we learn about Taiwan culture.
3. - God will encourage and help Seeun, our oldest daughter, who is studying to be a nurse in Australia. Please pray that she will study well for his kingdom and will find a part time job..
4. - the Lord will bless Jueun, our second girl, who went to back to Korea to prepare for her university next year in Korea. Pray that she will trust Him to lead the way. She is working at a cosmetic shop.
5. - Daeun, the youngest, will adjust well to the local Taiwan high school and have good friends and teachers. Please pray that she will understand Chinese well at the classes, so that she can enjoy school.

G. Taiwan missionaries:

Continue to remember our missionaries from Taiwan who are in various places involved in translation work, mobilising for missions, English language teaching, evangelism, women's and children's ministry. Pray for the Lord's grace, wisdom, strength, protection and peace to be given to each one. Some are in tense situations. Pray for M & R who have settled well in their new environment. Pray for R as she learns the local language. Continue to pray for the translation work and for good helpers. Pray too for S. as she visits the homes of local people. She praises the Lord for good adjustment and good health.. Pray for good relationships with local co-workers. Pray for A as he has over 20 students in his English class. Pray for J as she is involved in women's ministry. Praise the Lord for the opportunities Kevin and Anna have to share about missions in churches and other special meetings. Pray for Kevin's IT work which is very important. Continue to remember Pastor and Mrs. Wang in the ministry they are involved in with IMM in Korea

H. Taiwan:

Continue to pray for this beautiful country that the Gospel will reach every area. Please continue to pray for the Presidential and Government officials elections to be held 11th January 2020.

Thank you for praying for us. May the Lord give each of you a wonderful Christmas.
